FOTOFOCUS CURATED EXHIBITIONS

Eight exhibitions, curated by FotoFocus Artistic Director and Curator Kevin Moore, bear diverse and nuanced, yet interconnected, relationships to the theme, Photography, the Undocument, which seeks to break apart assumptions about photography's documentary character by emphasizing the medium's natural tendency to distort, edit, and reshape the visible world.

- CONTEMPORARY ARTS CENTER
ROE ETHRIDGE: NEAREST NEIGHBOR
Oct 7, 2016–Mar 12, 2017
Roe Ethridge: Nearest Neighbor, the artist's first solo museum exhibition in the United States, draws from disparate bodies of work made over the past fifteen years. Shifting fluidly and unapologetically between the realms of commercial, fine art, and personal photography, Ethridge's work playfully exploits the ambiguous boundaries separating these distinct photographic modes.
- 21C MUSEUM HOTEL
ROBIN RHODE: THREE FILMS
Oct 1, 2016–Jan 23, 2017
Robin Rhode: Three Films features three short films that combine social activism and poetry: Rocks (2011), A Day in May (2013), and The Moon is Asleep (2016).
- ALICE F. AND HARRIS K. WESTON ART GALLERY
AFTER INDUSTRY
Sept 23–Nov 27
Drawn from the collection of New York collector and Ohio native Gregory Gooding, After Industry features twentieth-century photographs by American and German artists, exploring industry and its impact on landscape from a post-industrial perspective.

ZANELE MUHOLI: PERSONAE
Oct 1, 2016–Jan 23, 2017
Zanele Muholi: Personae explores identity in two distinct bodies of work: Faces and Phases (2006–ongoing), a series of portraits of South African women who identify as lesbian, and Somnyama Nkonyama, a series of self-portraits Muholi began in 2015.
- CLAY STREET PRESS
MARLO PASCUAL: THREE WORKS
Sept 23–Nov 27
After Industry is accompanied by an installation in the street-level gallery by Marlo Pascual, an American artist living and working in New York. A native of Nashville, TN, Pascual creates enigmatic still-lives featuring found photographs in relation to common objects.
- WASH PARK ART
JACKIE NICKERSON: AUGUST
Oct 1, 2016–Jan 23, 2017
Jackie Nickerson: August features portraits made in southern Africa over the past decade, drawn from two bodies of published work: Farm (2002) and Terrain (2013). Both series explore individual identity and farm laborers' relationship to their environment.
