

Milwaukee photographer named Taft Duncanson resident

Julie Engebrecht, jengebrecht@enquirer.com

2:59 p.m. EDT September 18, 2014

(Photo: Provided/William Zuback)

STORY HIGHLIGHTS

- 5-7 p.m. Oct. 29: Reception and exhibition preview.
- 2-4 p.m. Nov. 2: Family Workshop for ages 4 and up. Create photo transfers with images of home.
- 3:30-5:30 p.m. Nov. 3: Interactive workshop, ages 13-19 focusing on posing, body position, facial expression to create the ultimate selfie at Elementz Urban Hip Hop Center.
- 5-7 p.m. Nov. 5: A Conversation with Laci Coppins.

Milwaukee-based photographer Laci Coppins has been named the 2014 Duncanson Artist-in-Residence at the Taft Museum of Art.

Coppins will exhibit her work and conduct a variety of workshops, both publicly and in schools, Oct. 27-Nov. 7.

Her exhibit, "Laci Coppins: Home is What We Carry," will be at the Taft Oct. 30-Nov. 30.

Coppins has exhibited extensively her non-traditional portraiture and photographic mixed media work across the United States and in Italy.

Visit her website here.

The Taft chose a photographer this year to align with its FotoFocus-timed exhibition opening Oct. 3, "Paris Night & Day: Masterworks of Photography from Atget to Man Ray."

The Duncanson Artist-in-Residence program, established in 1986 and named for painter Robert S. Duncanson, honors the achievements of contemporary African-American artists.

Community programs are free. Register through the Taft at 513-684-4528 or www.taftmuseum.org.