Tyler Shields is an exciting young photographer, director and writer from Los Angeles whose work is humorous, super-sexy, thought-provoking and often contains a biting critique on today's consumer-culture.

Shields recently gathered a lot of attention on-line with his video Silver Shadow in which he destroys a vintage Rolls Royce.

As part of the biennial FOTOFOCUS celebration, Shields will be exhibiting a collection of works entitled Provocateur at The Miller Gallery on Hyde Park Square. The exhibit runs October 24 through November 8 and includes an artist's reception at the gallery on Friday, October 24 at 7pm.

Music:

"Keep Your Eyes on Me" by The Len Price 3 from the album Pictures

*Special thanks to 21c Museum Hotel Cincinnati for providing a space for the interview.
