The five-day festival that's at the heart of FotoFocus Biennial 2014 kicks off Wednesday with an opening performance at 8 p.m. at Memorial Hall.

Filmmaker/artist Martha Colburn is part of a performance that includes her animated films and music from pianist Thollem McDonas, violinist Tatiana Berman and others.

Special exhibitions are open from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. starting Wednesday, including short- and longer-form film "Screenings" at Lightborne Studios, 212 14th St., Over-the-Rhine.

FotoGram@ArtHub, a José García-designed structure erected in Washington Park, will feature a screen with Instagram feeds from the event. Instagram feeds also will be shown at the 21c Museum Hotel on Walnut Street and Neon's on 12th Street.

Add your FotoFocus Instagram photos to the mix by using the hashtag #fotofocus2014.
